Declaration (Applicable to the use of Chinese Mainland Bank Accounts for Receiving Annuity Payments)

I, being the Proposed Policyowner, confirm that I have read, understand, and agree to all the terms, conditions, risks and disclaimers set out below in relation to receiving annuity payments via the Chinese Mainland Bank Account (as specified in this Application Form) and acknowledge that ABC Limited relies on my consent, representations, warranties, and undertakings when submitting payment instructions to Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited or another bank appointed by us with notice to you ("Servicing Bank").

Receiving Account Details. I confirm that the Chinese Mainland Bank Account designated for receiving annuity payments is held in my sole name (no joint bank account) and I have provided the bank name, account number, and exact bank account holder name as registered with that bank ("Receiving Bank").

Representations and Warranties. I represent and warrant that (i) all information provided in this confirmation is true, accurate, and complete; (ii) I am the lawful beneficiary of the annuity payments under the insurance policy; (iii) the designated account is active, valid, and entitled to receive cross-border Renminbi remittances from Hong Kong; and (iv) the receipt of annuity payments in Chinese Mainland complies with all applicable laws, regulations, and foreign exchange controls of the People's Republic of China ("PRC").

Currency Conversion and Exchange Rate. I acknowledge that the annuity payment will be made in Hong Kong Dollars ("HKD") and that the Servicing Bank or its correspondent bank will convert the funds into Renminbi ("RMB") using the spot exchange rate determined by the processing bank at the time of the transaction. I understand that exchange rates fluctuate in real time, and the final RMB amount credited to my account may differ from any estimate or expectation. I accept all risks associated with exchange rate fluctuations, and neither ABC Limited nor the Servicing Bank shall be liable for any losses arising from such fluctuations.

Fees and Charges. I agree that all handling fees, exchange rate margins, correspondent bank charges, and other costs related to the cross-border payment shall be borne by me. Such fees may be deducted from the remittance amount, and the final credited amount may be less than the original HKD amount converted. ABC Limited shall not reimburse or bear any such fees.

Compliance and Data Processing. I acknowledge that the payment and the use of my personal data is subject to the laws, regulations, and anti-money laundering requirements of Hong Kong and Chinese Mainland, and the terms and conditions (including the operating rules) of the Servicing Bank's cross-border payment service, and the Servicing Bank's Data Policy Notice (as amended from time to time). I undertake to provide any additional information or documentation as may be requested by ABC Limited, the Servicing Bank, or any regulatory authority. My personal data (including but not limited to name, residential address, annuity information and bank account details of remittance beneficiary) and all relevant annuity application documents and/or contracts which shall contain relevant details of payment and banking transaction record may be disclosed to the Servicing Bank and its service providers for the purpose of processing the payment from time to time, may be transferred to the Receiving Bank where I hold a bank account in the Chinese Mainland or other jurisdictions, and disclosed to regulatory authorities, courts, or government agencies as required by applicable law or legal process or guidelines of any country with jurisdiction over the remittance transactions including but not limited to the PRC. I consent to such data processing and disclosure, and I understand that ABC Limited relies on this consent when submitting payment instructions to the Servicing Bank.

Bank Discretion and No Guarantee. I acknowledge that the Servicing Bank has absolute discretion to accept, reject, delay, or reverse any payment instruction, and that ABC Limited has no control over the Servicing Bank's decision. Neither ABC Limited nor the Servicing Bank guarantees that any payment will be successfully processed or credited by any particular time. If the Servicing Bank or my Receiving Bank rejects the payment, or if the payment is delayed or returned for any reason, I shall bear all resulting costs, including return fees and exchange rate losses.

Customer's Responsibility to Verify. I acknowledge that it is my sole responsibility to confirm with my Receiving Bank that the designated account is eligible to receive cross-border RMB remittances from Hong Kong and to comply with any requirements imposed by my Receiving Bank or by applicable regulations and guidelines. I understand that if I fail to verify or if my Receiving Bank refuses to accept the payment, ABC Limited and the Servicing Bank shall have no liability.

Indemnity and Limitation of Liability. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless ABC Limited and its directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against (i) any claims, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including legal fees) arising out of or in connection with any inaccuracy or incompleteness in the information I provide; (ii) any breach of my representations, warranties, or undertakings in this confirmation; (iii) any rejection, delay, reversal, or return of a payment by the Servicing Bank or my Receiving Bank; or (iv) any regulatory action or investigation relating to my payment. To the maximum extent permitted by law, ABC Limited shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising from the payment service, including but not limited to exchange rate losses, bank fees, or delays.

Declaration (Applicable to the use of Chinese Mainland Bank Accounts for Receiving Annuity Payments) (CON'T)

Termination of Service. I acknowledge that ABC Limited reserves the right to amend, suspend, or terminate this payment service at any time without prior notice and without any liability resulting therefrom, and upon termination ABC Limited shall have no further obligation to process or return payments.

Entire Agreement. I agree that this application, together with any terms and conditions incorporated by reference, constitutes the entire agreement regarding the cross-border annuity payment service. Any verbal statements or representations made by ABC Limited or its representatives are not binding unless expressly set out in this written application.

Acknowledgment. I confirm that I have been advised to seek independent legal or financial advice regarding this arrangement and either have done so or voluntarily waive such advice. This confirmation, together with any documents incorporated by reference, constitutes the entire agreement between me and ABC Limited regarding the annuity payment service and shall be governed by the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.
